

STR Responsible Sourcing Webinar Series Update

STR Responsible Sourcing (formerly CSCC) is continuing its series of webinars into December 2008. These webinars offer an opportunity to learn from our experts and receive guidance on how to address challenging human rights and environmental issues in supply chain management.

Upcoming webinars:

INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL AUDITING

How do you assess for human rights abuses in a manufacturing context? What techniques do factory managers use to evade auditors? What unique circumstances can you expect to encounter in China? How do you interview workers effectively? Learn all this and more from our expert staff in this informative webinar.

Click here to register.

8:00 AM - 9:00 AM PST
Tuesday, December 16, 2008
$75.00

HOME WORKERS IN THE SUPPLY CHAIN: Risks and Strategies for Social Compliance

Are your products or elements of your products likely to be subcontracted to home workers? Where are you most likely to encounter this issue? How can you address home workers in your supply chain while acknowledging both the reputational risks and valid source of income associated with home work?

To register for this webinar, please send email to: Sol.Milius@STRRS.com.

8:00 AM - 9:00 AM PST
Wednesday, December 17, 2008
$75.00

CSR REPORTING ON SUPPLY CHAIN COMPLIANCE: What is the Right Level of Transparency?

Learn about what other companies are doing with regard to supply chain reporting and benchmark your level of transparency against current trends and practices. Understand what strategies can be adopted to gather supply chain data and how to mitigate risks associated with disclosure.

To register for this webinar, please send email to: Sol.Milius@STRRS.com.

8:00 AM - 9:00 AM PST
Thursday, December 18, 2008
$75.00

More webinars are coming soon! Please contact: Webinars@STRRS.com for more information.